CONSUMED

No! I'm going all in

Your life should be free from the love of money.
Be satisfied with what you have, for He Himself has said, 'I will never leave you or forsake you.' Therefore, we may boldly say: 'The Lord is my helper; I will not be afraid. What can man do to me?'

Hebrews 13:5-6

CONSUMED

No! I'm going all in

When do I need God's help?

ALWAYS.

Then why don't I feel like I need it?

CONSUMED

No! I'm going all in

I don't need God's help because I don't venture out where He wants me to go. . .
or to do what He wants me to do. . .
or to love what He wants me to love.

CONSUMED

No! I'm going all in

When do I become fearful?

CONSUMED

No! I'm going all in

I become fearful when I think of the risk I am taking by reducing the realities of my life to one thing: trusting and obeying Jesus.

CONSUMED

No! I'm going all in Going all in makes me feel secure and unsettled at the same time.

CONSUMED

No! I'm going all in

When I trust Jesus and go all in,
it's like life zooms up and grabs me.

I FEEL ALIVE!

CONSUMED

No! I'm going all in

When I am content, satisfied and secure, I can see others clearly.

CONSUMED

No! I'm going all in

The Great command is “Love God with all your heart, soul, mind and strength and love your neighbor as yourself.”

God had a reason for making that the Great Commandment.

CONSUMED

No! I'm going all in

I can take nothing from this world in my hands
but I can take the world with me in my heart.

CONSUMED

No! I'm going all in

Even though Jesus' hands were empty and scarred,

He went to his Father with hands that were full.
